CRL.M.A. 26313/2026 (exemption)

Exemption allowed subject to all just exceptions.

CRL.M.C. 6320/2026

1. Petitioner seeks quashing of FIR No.158/2015 dated 21.03.2015 registered at P.S. Mansarovar Park for commission of offences under Sections 279/337 IPC.
2. One of the prime contentions coming from the side of petitioner is to the effect that the injured in question had left the hospital against medical advice without disclosing his identity or address and, therefore, there is nothing on record which may incriminate the petitioner herein. He submits that the case was registered way back in the year 2015 and trial is getting dragged without even looking into the abovesaid material aspect.

3. The next date of hearing before the learned Trial Court is stated to be 06.11.2026.
4. After hearing arguments for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, does not press the present petition if a direction is given to the learned Trial Court to expedite the trial.
5. Learned Addl. P.P. for the State appears on advance notice and assures that there would be complete assistance from their side to the learned Trial Court to achieve expeditious disposal of the matter.
6. Apparently, the case is already more than ten years old.
7. The petition is, accordingly, disposed of as not pressed with request to learned Trial Court to decide the abovesaid case as expeditiously as possible and, preferably, within a period of six months from the date it takes up the matter.
8. A copy of this order be sent to learned Trial Court for information.
