

$~19 & 20

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

CNR No. DLHC010514662005

+ CRL.A. 839/2005

JASWANT SINGH

.....Appellant

Through: Mr. Akash Vats, proxy counsel for
Mr. Sumit Kumar, Adv.

versus

STATE

.....Respondent

Through: Mr. Raj Kumar, APP for State with SI
Rahul Malik, PS Roop Nagar.

20

CNR No. DLHC010516142005

+ CRL.A. 987/2005

BALJEET SINGH & ORS

.....Appellants

Through: Mr. Akash Vats, proxy counsel for
Mr. Sumit Kumar, Adv.

versus

STATE OF NCT OF DELHI

.....Respondent

Through: Mr. Raj Kumar, APP for State with SI
Rahul Malik, PS Roop Nagar.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIMAL KUMAR YADAV

ORDER

% 01.09.2026

2. Hybrid mode.

CRL.A. 839/2005

3. In terms of the last order, learned counsel for the Appellant had sought instructions from the LRs of the Appellant whether the LRs wish to continue with the appeal or not in view of the fact that the Appellant is no more.

CRL.A. 987/2005

4. In terms of the last order, learned counsel for the Appellants had sought instructions from the LRs of the Appellants whether the LRs wish to continue with the appeal or not in view of the fact that the Appellants Baljeet Singh and Karambir are no more.

CRL.A. 839/2005 & CRL.A. 987/2005

5. A very unfortunate situation has emerged in the appeals where all three Appellants have left this mortal world and their legal heirs as specifically told by the learned counsel appearing for Appellants/legal heirs that the legal heirs do not wish to continue with the appeals anymore.

6. Accordingly, proceedings qua the Appellants stand abated.

7. Both the appeals stand disposed of as abated.

VIMAL KUMAR YADAV, J

SEPTEMBER 1, 2026/akc