CORAM:

HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE MADHU JAIN

ORDER

01.09.2026

1. This hearing has been done through hybrid mode.
2. The present petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (hereinafter referred to as the "Cr.P.C.") has been filed on behalf of the petitioners, inter alia, seeking expeditious disposal of Execution Petition bearing Ex. Crl. 46/2022, filed on 07.02.2022 and pending before the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, South-West District, Dwarka, arising out of the order granting maintenance in favour of the petitioners and seeking the following reliefs:-

“ a) Direct the Ld. Execution Court to dispose off the execution petition of the Petitioners in a time bound manner;

b) Direct the Ld. Execution Court to get the warrants issued against the Respondent executed by the concerned police officials in a time bound manner;

c) Direct the Ld. Execution Court to attach the salary of the Respondent for clearance of arrears of Rs.1,44,000/-

as of December 2023

a) Pass any such orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem necessary in the interest of justice.”

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that despite the execution petition having remained pending for a considerable period, and despite warrants having been issued against the Judgment Debtor on more than one occasion, the same have not been executed. It is further submitted that the Judgment Debtor is residing in the same building as the petitioners and, therefore, the warrants issued by the learned Executing Court have not been effectively executed despite the passage of considerable time.
4. In view of the aforesaid submissions and the facts and circumstances of the case, the learned Executing Court is requested to proceed with the execution petition expeditiously and in accordance with law. The learned Executing Court shall also take such steps as may be necessary and permissible in law for effective execution of the order/decreed sought to be enforced.
5. With the aforesaid observations, the present petition is disposed of.
6. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
