1. After arguing at some length, learned counsel for the appellant/plaintiff has submitted that subsequent to the filing of the Suit before learned Family Court, various litigations concerning the marital relationship between the appellant/plaintiff and the respondent/defendant have arisen before different Courts. In view of these subsequent developments, he prays for permission to withdraw the present appeal with liberty to institute a fresh suit in accordance with the changed circumstances.

2. Having considered the submission, the present appeal is disposed of by permitting the appellant to withdraw the present appeal with liberty to file a fresh Suit, if so provided, in accordance with law.

3. Consequently, all pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
