31.08.2026

The matter was listed for 27.08.2026 and is taken up today as 27.08.2026 was declared a holiday.

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions submits that the petitioner is ready for recording of his call by the concerned authorities. The petitioner, however, be permitted to connect with his wife and minor daughter.
2. In view of the aforesaid, that does not seem to be any apprehension for the NIA or the other authority regarding any adverse influence to the prosecution case being meted out. The challenging circular dated 22.04.2024 has already been dropped by the petitioner and the petition is confined to the extent of allowing the petitioner to interact with the wife and minor daughter. The Court finds it reasonable and accordingly, directs the concerned authority to allow the petitioner to talk to wife and minor daughter. If the authority deems it appropriate, they shall record the petitioner's conversation and additionally before connecting the petitioner can also verify the number on which the petitioner seeks to be connected.

3. With these observations, nothing requires to be adjudicated, the petition stands disposed of. Pending applications also stand disposed of.
