1. The present petition seeks quashing of the FIR on the ground of settlement with the injured, who was employed with the Petitioners on the date of the incident and allegedly sustained serious injuries while operating a machine. As per the FIR, the injured suffered the amputation of three fingers of his right hand.
2. The State is directed to verify the disability suffered by the injured from a government hospital, either Safdarjung Hospital or GB Pant Hospital. Based on the disability so assessed, the State shall file a status report indicating the compensation payable under the Workmen's Compensation Act after taking into consideration the injured's wages, number of dependents, and percentage of disability.

3. Accordingly, re-notify on 06th January, 2026.
