For Respondent(s)	:	Ms. Manju Dave, PP

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PRAMIL KUMAR MATHUR

Order

03/07/2026

1. The petitioner has preferred this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.96/2026 registered at Police Station Khetri Nagar, District Jhunjhunu for offences under Sections 318(2), 316(3), 238(c), 326(g) and 3(5) of BNS, 2023.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that the allegation against the present petitioner is that, being the driver of the vehicle in which the articles of the complainant were being transported, he himself set the vehicle on fire and thereby facilitated the misappropriation of the articles. He argues that the petitioner is innocent and he himself informed the complainant immediately about the incident and also contacted the Emergency Response Support System (ERSS), which is corroborated by the call detail records/ERSS records. Petitioner is behind the bars since 28.05.2026 without any criminal past. The trial of the case will take considerable time, therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in further custody, consequently, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in light of submissions made on behalf of petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Karan Singh S/o Mamchand, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
