Order

29/07/2026

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been accorded appointment on the post of School Lecturer, Grade-I under the widow category.

Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is having a child with 40% disability. He submits that the petitioner has been transferred beyond the district and due to the transfer, she would suffer great hardship for maintaining her son, who is 40% disabled.

Learned counsel also submits that no one has been posted on the post on which the petitioner was working, meaning thereby the post has been kept vacant.

Learned counsel appearing for the respondents submits that looking to the submissions, the petitioner may submit a representation which would be considered by the respondents in an objective manner.

In view of the above, this writ petition is disposed off with a liberty to the petitioner to make a representation to the competent respondent authority within a period of seven days from today.

In case the petitioner submits the representation within the given time of seven days, the respondents shall consider and pass an appropriate order taking into consideration the issue agitated.

Till disposal of the representation, the effect and operation of the impugned transfer order dated 10.07.2026 qua the petitioner shall remain stayed.

In case the petitioner fails to submit the representation within the given time of seven days, this interim order shall seize its effect automatically.

Stay application as well as pending application/s, if any, also stand/s disposed.
