	SB : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE P. SAM KOSHY 24.12.2014 Shri S. I. Ali, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Vivek Chopra, counsel for the respondent. The ground for filing of the instant petition was the non-clearance of the debts by the respondent company payable to the petitioner company to the tune of Rs. 18,51,171. Counsel for the parties entering appearance before the Court submit that the two companies, by now, have mutually settled the dispute between each other and a consent letter has also been issued in this regard which is Annexure R-1/1 executed between the petitioner and the respondent company. In the light of the submissions made by the counsel appearing for either side and also taking note of the contents of the consent letter, the parties to the consent letter i.e. the petitioner and the respondent firm herein are bound by the terms of the agreement as is envisaged in the consent letter. Counsel for the petitioner submits that in the light of the consent letter, the grievance of the petitioner stands redressed and therefore the petitioner Company at this stage does not want to
