CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

.....

3 19-03-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned
AC to AAG-3.

The petitioners, invoking writ jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, has prayed for directing the Respondents to appoint them on the post of constable in Central Range.

Fact remains that for the post of constables, an advertisement was made in the year 1998 and result was finally published in the year 2000. However, after about eight years, the present writ petition has been filed.

Learned counsel for the State submits that after advertisement of 1998, several other advertisements were made and appointment has already been made.

In view of the fact that the petitioners approached this Court much belatedly, there is no reason to entertain the writ petition. The writ petition stands dismissed.
