CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

5 09-04-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
AC to SC No.20.

The petitioner, who admittedly retired in the year 2000 has approached this court invoking its writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India with a prayer to make correction in respect of date of time bound promotion given to the petitioner, which was granted in the year 1990.

The petitioner claims that he was eligible to be given time bound promotion in the year 1981 itself, but since he had not passed Accounts Examination, earlier, he was not granted promotion and he passed the said examination in the year 1990, and thereafter, he was given first time bound promotion from the year 1990 and he was subsequently given 2nd time bound promotion with effect from 1995.

If for the time being it is accepted that the claim of the petitioner is genuine, the court is of the opinion that first of all cause of action arose for the petitioner in the year 1990. There is no plausible explanation for approaching this court after eighteen years. In such stale matter, no order is required to be passed.

The writ petition stands dismissed.
