CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ADITYA KUMAR TRIVEDI
ORAL ORDER

04 04-05-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor.

Deceased died at her Sasural and her dead body was disposed of in haphazard manner for which informant, her brother has instituted this case putting an allegation of torture and cruelty on account of non-fulfilment of demand of dowry which ultimately cost her life.

It has been submitted on behalf of petitioner that whatever allegation has been attributed, happens to be false and fabulous and that has purposely been introduced to squeeze the petitioner. It has also been submitted that there was love affair subsisting in between brother of Bhabhi of deceased with deceased and on account thereof, she committed suicide. So, submitted that it is a fit case wherein petitioner, husband is entitled for regular bail.

On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the prayer.

Gone through the case diary. From the statement of the villagers of the petitioner, it is apparent that deceased died at night and her dead body was disposed of in the night itself and that is sufficient to speak the conduct of the petitioner. Petitioner, being husband of the deceased in the aforesaid background does not deserve bail.

Accordingly, prayer of petitioner for bail is rejected.
