CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 07-04-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
AC to AAG No. 8.

The petitioner invoking writ jurisdiction of this court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, has prayed for directing the respondents to appoint her as Aanganbari Sevika for Aanganbari Centre No. 6 Gram Panchayat, Jamalabad, P.S. Ahiyapur, Block- Musahari, in the district of Muzaffarpur. It has been argued that though petitioner had got higher mark than the private respondent i.e. respondent no. 8, ignoring the case of petitioner, respondent no. 8 has been appointed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he has also filed an application before the District Magistrate vide Annexure – 7 regarding the present complaint, however, no decision has been taken.

Instead of asking the State Counsel to file counter affidavit, the court proposes to dispose of the writ petition granting liberty to the petitioner to file specific complaint supported with affidavit in view of Clause – VIII of the Guidelines for appointment of Aanganbari Sevika to the District Magistrate, Muzaffarpur. If such complaint is filed within a period of eight weeks from today, the court expects that the respondent no. 4 / District Magistrate may get the matter enquired into and pass appropriate order in accordance with law preferably within a period of three months from the date of filing of such complaint.

The writ petition stands disposed of.
