CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. NILU AGRAWAL
ORAL ORDER

3 12-08-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner is languishing in custody since 04.04.2014 in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304 (B), 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code in Goh P. S.
Case No. 21/2014.

The prosecution case is that the informant got information on 30.01.204 that the dead body of his daughter Rubby Kumari has been concealed on a branch of tree after cutting her neck near a river. On this information, the informant went and found his daughter in dead condition and alleged that his daughter has been murdered and her dead body has been concealed by Munna Choudhary (petitioner), Pachan Choudhary and his wife, and Ranjan Choudhary for fulfillment of dowry demand. It is also alleged that the marriage took place six years ago and after the marriage, she was subjected to cruelty for fulfillment of dowry demand and ultimately she was caused to death and dead body was concealed near a river on a branch of tree.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated and has been married with the deceased before seven years ago and there was no question of torture and demand of dowry.

From the perusal of the case diary in various paragraphs, the witnesses have supported the case and page -28 of the post mortem report also speaks that incised wound has been found on the neck of the deceased.

Under such circumstances, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the prayer for bail stands rejected.
