The petitioner is languishing in custody since

Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code and 27 of the Arms Act.

It is alleged that the accused persons causing injury on the neck of the son of the informant Manoj Kumar, thereafter co-accused Vishwavijay Singh caused injury with pistol on the abdomen of the victim whereas firing made by Pankaj Singh also caused injury and the firing of Ram Suresh Singh caused injury on the leg. The firing made by this petitioner did not hit the victim whereas the firing made by Dhiraj Kumar Singh caused injury on the thigh of the victim.

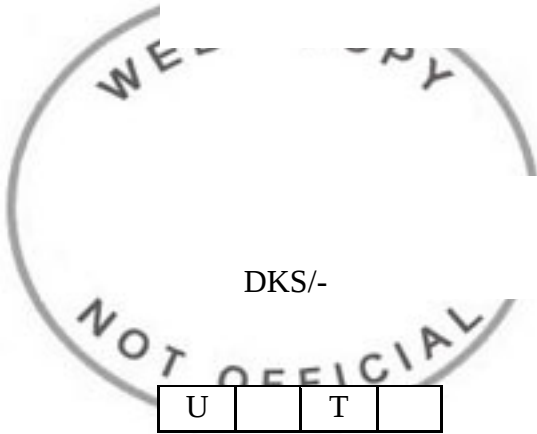

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that as per own admission of the informant the firing made by this petitioner has not caused any injury to the victim.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the informant that the petitioner was member of unlawful assembly and he was sharing common intention to kill the son of the informant.

Considering the fact that admittedly the firing made by this petitioner did not cause any injury to the victim and the investigation has already concluded, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Vaishali in connection with Raghapur P.S. Since the petitioner is accused in three other cases, the learned court below will be at liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner in two eventualities i.e. if he defaults for two consecutive occasions or substantially gets involved in some serious nature of offence.
