CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 09-07-2015

Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Barun P.S. Case No. 51 of 2015, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 and other Sections of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner lifted 6680.20 quintals of paddy for milling and he has to deposit 4475.70 quintal of CMR rice to the S.F.C., but he has only deposited 8 lots of CMR. The petitioner has caused loss to the S.F.C. worth Rs. 50,14,861/-.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in pursuance of the agreement between the petitioner and the S.F.C. the S.F.C. was to carry rice from the mill of the petitioner, but the S.F.C. did not provide any transportation. The petitioner wrote several letters to the S.F.C. for lifting the rice. When the rice was sent to the S.F.C. godown, the same was rejected on the ground that the rice was of substandard quality. It is further submitted that in many cases the rice mill owner were granted anticipatory bail on the ground that the certificate case 41/2014-15 was pending. It is a case of violation of terms of agreement between the S.F.C. and rice mill owners.

From perusal of the records, it appears that the agreement was of the year 2012-13, but even after two years the rice was not either lifted by the S.F.C. or by the petitioner and Rs. 50,14,861/- is still lying with the petitioner.

Considering the facts aforesaid, if the petitioner is deposited 20 per cent of the entire amount within six months from the date of receipt of this order and for the rest amount the petitioner and the authority of the S.F.C. shall resolve the disputes through proper means within six months thereafter. But the petitioner above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Aurangabad in Barun P.S. Case No. 51 of 2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C. and further that if the petitioner fails to deposit 20 per cent of the total amount within six months, the learned court below shall cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.
