CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

03/ 22-06-2015

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the informant is languishing in custody since 21.11.2014 in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 341, 323, 307 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is of torture after ten years of the marriage for non-fulfillment of the dowry demand. It is further alleged that on 29th March, 2013 the petitioner and other family members sprinkled petrol and lit fire, though, she was saved by her grand father-in-law. The petitioner and others threatened for not lodging case while providing medical assistance. It is also alleged that on 17th November, 2014 the informant was driven out from the matrimonial house.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that for the specific occurrence of causing burn injury is of 29th March, 2013 whereas the FIR was lodged on 20.11.2014. Statement has been made in para 11 of the petition that there is no medical report on the record. It is further submitted that considering the above facts the other family members of the petitioner have been granted anticipatory bail vide Cr. Misc. No. 7060 of 2015.

Considering the delayed lodging of the case, statement in para 11 of the petition that there is no injury report on the record and the period under custody, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Siwan in connection with Nautan P.S. Case No. 149 of 2014.
