ORAL ORDER

2 01-09-2015

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner is apprehending arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Section147/148/149/341/323/324/353/337/338/379/307 of the Indian Penal Code.

It is alleged that five persons were taking liquor at the shop of Satyendra Roy, when his brother, namely, Golu Roy made protest, all the accused threw hot oil on the body of Golu Roy, as a result he received serious burnt injuries. In the meantime, the police received information that illicit liquor is being stored in the shop of Surendra Singh from where recovery was made and the informant entrusted the seized liquor to two constables when a mob of about 40-50 people came and caused injuries to the police personnels.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that frivolous case has been lodged by the police to save their skin since the police resorted to fire in a petty dispute wherein son of the petitioner received gunshot injury. In fact, the mob was protesting against the firing made by the police. Moreover, the accusation is omnibus and general and the injury has been found to be simple in nature. A statement has been made in paragraph 3 of the petition that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

Considering the aforesaid facts, let the above named petitioner be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of 12 weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of ₹10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Saran at Chapra in connection with Doriganj P.S. Case No.131 of 2013, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
