302,201/34 of the I.P.C.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The prosecution case, in brief, is that on 14.1.2014

when some persons came to the informant's house and called husband of the informant, Yogi Yadav, Brajesh Kumar and one unknown person took her husband with them and since then he did not return. Despite search the informant could not trace him out.

On query by the informant they told that her husband had gone to Nepal but subsequently told that he had gone to Kulcutta.She has suspected that the aforesaid three persons had kidnapped and done to death.

On behalf of the petitioner it has been submitted that he is in custody since 27.4.2014 and charge sheet has already been submitted in this case. Petitioner is not named in the F.I.R. In course of investigation when the third statement of the informant was recorded she raised only suspicion against the petitioner in respect of the abduction of the deceased. There is no specific allegation against petitioner in respect of the abduction. The petitioner has got no criminal antecedent.

On behalf of the State it is submitted that the petitioner's name has appeared in this case in course of investigation.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, let the petitioner, above named, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of C.J.M., Gaya, in Rampur P.S. Case No.45/14.
