aforementioned and though charge sheet has been submitted, trial has not yet commenced and perusal of the materials available does not reveal such incriminating materials, which would warrant further detention of the accused-petitioners in custody, and in view also of the fact that perusal of the materials does not reveal that the accused-petitioners' liberty on bail would adversely affect their trial, it is, in the interest of justice, hereby directed that the accused above-named shall be released on bail of Rs. 10,000/-, with two sureties, each of the like amount, subject to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Araria. This direction for bail is further subject to the condition that the accused above-named shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence and shall appear, in the learned Court below, as may be directed.

In terms of the above directions, this bail application shall stand disposed of.
