Heard the parties.

The petitioner seeks bail in a criminal prosecution registered under Section 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Taking into consideration the fact that there is allegation of firing against the petitioner in the FIR vide Annexure- 1 and further taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner remained absconding for last several years, this Court is not inclined to accede to the prayer made on behalf of the petitioner for grant of bail in connection with Sessions Trial No. 217 of 1990 arising out of Karja P.,S.Case No. 60 of 1989 pending in the court of learned Additional Sessions Judge 2nd, Muzaffarpur. Accordingly, the prayer for bail is rejected.

Learned senior counsel points out that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 30.03.2014.

In above view of the matter, the learned trial court is hereby directed to take up the trial of the petitioner on priority basis. If the charge has not been framed against the petitioner, the same must be framed without any further delay and all endeavours shall be made to conclude the trial of the petitioner within a maximum period of one year from the date of framing of charge. However, if the trial of the petitioner is not concluded within the aforesaid period of time, without there being any fault on the part of the petitioner, he shall be at liberty to renew his prayer for bail.
