CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AMARESH KUMAR LAL
ORAL ORDER

4 27-04-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 302/201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation is that the petitioner took the deceased from her house in the morning on the pretext of harvesting banana crop. Thereafter, she did not return and later on her dead body was found in a river.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no eye witness to the occurrence. The circumstantial evidence is too weak to connect the petitioner with the death of the deceased. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent. However, after investigation chargesheet has already been submitted and charges have been framed against the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the State submits that there is evidence to show that the petitioner had taken the deceased from her house. It has also come to light that the petitioner had illicit relation with the deceased and there was also transaction of money between the deceased and the petitioner. There are strong circumstances against the petitioner.

Considering the facts and circumstances, in my opinion, the petitioner does not deserve bail. His prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Let the trial of the petitioner in Supplementary Parbatta P. S. Case no. 186 of 2010 giving rise to Sessions Case no. 122 of 2014 be expedited.
