CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

2 16-02-2015 The bonafide of the petitioner is not being established and explained by the learned counsel for the petitioner. Why this Court should encourage the writ petitioner when he was not even the applicant or claimant to the post. Obviously, there is much more behind the present writ application than trying to clean the society by removing respondent no.7 from the post of Assistant Teacher which is said to have been illegally made on a forged and fabricated mark sheet. These are matters, which are best required to be considered by the District Programme Officer, Supaul, who may go into the materials and take a decision, but not at the instance of the present petitioner.

The writ application is dismissed.
