ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 03-02-2015

03.02.2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Writ application is dismissed on the sole ground that there is neither any demand nor refusal by the competent authority. There cannot be a mandamus in absence of any demand or refusal by the public authority. In fact there is inaction on the part of the petitioner. Petitioner is free to assert his right before the competent authority.

Writ application is dismissed with liberty as above.
