The petitioners are father and sons apprehending their arrest in connection with Madhepura P.S. Case No. 11 of 2015 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 324, 325, 307 and 379/34 the Indian Penal Code.

Earlier diary of the present case has been called for which has since been received.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the allegation against the petitioners has been occasioned because of the fact that the petitioners had lodged a case on the same date prior to lodging of the present case by the informant. It is further submitted that the three persons came to the Medical shop of the petitioners and demanded Corex Syrup, as they were in the habit of consuming the same, however, on denial by the petitioners, the informant of the present case became aggressive and as a result of which, an altercation took place between the parties. It is further submitted that the petitioners have no criminal antecedent and the injury which is said to have been found on the person, is simple in nature.
