ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 24-03-2015

A K Tripathi, J.

Writ application is disposed of with liberty to these petitioners that they will produce appropriate evidence before the DDC, Siwan, with regard to non consideration of their experience certificate as daily wagers, which they are making grievance in the writ application. Since the original records are readily verifiable in the field itself, the matter is being disposed of with above liberty. If necessary correction is required to be made on the authentic material produced by the petitioner, it shall be done or that will be informed as to their status in this regard.
