CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 27-01-2015

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the daughter of the complainant is apprehending arrest in a complaint case in which process has been directed to be issued after cognizance being taken for the offences punishable under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

The basic accusation is of torture.

On instruction, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is ready to keep the daughter of the complainant as wife with full dignity and honour. A statement to that effect has been made in para 7 of the petition which reads as follows:-

“That it is submitted that the petitioner being a husband want to keep his wife full dignity and honour.”

Considering the present stand of the petitioner, let the above named petitioner be released on provisional anticipatory bail for one year in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of twelve weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of ₹10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Nawada in connection with Complaint Case No. 279 of 2013, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Let the learned court below issue notice to the daughter of the complainant for her appearance. On her appearance, the petitioner will take the daughter of the complainant to keep her as wife with full dignity and honour.

The provisional bail of the petitioner will be confirmed by learned court below in three eventualities (i) if the matrimonial harmony is substantially restored (ii) if the daughter of the complainant fails to appear before the learned court below or (iii) if she gets reluctant to reconcile the issue.
