CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 11-03-2015 Having regard to the fact that the petitioner has a statutory alternative remedy under Rule 5(2)(a) of the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965 by way of seeking reappraisal and reopening of his case and has still a chance of getting the impugned notice withdrawn with the further benefit of reinstatement in government service, this Court, on being informed by the learned Assistant Solicitor General that the petitioner can file his application before the Inspector General of C.R.P.F. who has been delegated with power to exercise the jurisdiction conferred under Rule 5(2)(a) of the Central Civil

Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965, would accord permission to the learned counsel for the petitioner to withdraw this application in order to avail the remedy under Rule 5(2)(a) of the aforesaid Act.
