CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

3 25-06-2015 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the nature of allegation against the petitioners for offence under Sections 307 and other allied offences of the Indian Penal Code and the fact that four persons from the prosecution side have sustained head injuries attributed to all these petitioners, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail merely because there is subsequent counter version of the same occurrence. It has to be kept in mind that neither there is any averment made in the bail application nor there is any material to show that there were similar serious injuries on the side of the petitioners.

That being so, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is hereby rejected. But then, nothing said in this order however shall come in the way of the petitioners in surrendering and making prayer for regular bail and if they do so, their prayer for regular bail shall be considered on its own merits without being prejudiced anything made in this order.
