CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KISHORE KUMAR
MANDAL
ORAL ORDER

2 07-07-2015

Heard both sides.

Out of the five accused persons cited in the complaint registered under Sections 147,323 and 379 of the IPC four of them have prayed for anticipatory bail.

The allegation is that the accused persons intruded into the shop of the complainant and at gun point committed loot/theft of certain articles. The son of the complainant was also injured. It has been submitted that due to business rivalry case has been lodged.

From the impugned order, it appears that cognizance in this case was taken in the year 2008 and the petitioner approached this Court several years thereafter. This particular fact persuaded the Court not to grant them the privilege of anticipatory bail. Prayer for bail is rejected.

Let the petitioners surrender and pray for regular bail before the learned Court below. In that event the learned Court below shall consider and dispose of the same on its own merit and pass appropriate order uninfluenced by the present order
