ORAL ORDER

2 02-07-2015

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Sherghati P.S. Case No. 397 of 2013 for the offence instituted under Section 304(B) of the Indian Penal Code.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The prosecution story, in brief, is that the marriage of Lalti Devi, daughter of the informant was solemnized with the petitioner about three years ago. It is further alleged that several times, his son-in-law demanded motorcycle and due to non-fulfilment of the said demand of Motorcycle, he used to assault to his daughter. Three months ago, a male child was born. On 03.09.2013 at about 8.00 A.M. the informant received information by the villagers that his daughter Lalti Devi died. Upon such information, the informant alongwith his family reached at the village Mahabattapur and saw his daughter lying dead on the court-yard. The informant raised suspicion that his son-in-law administered poison to his daughter and causing her death.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent and the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case. Further it has been submitted that there is no eye witness to the occurrence.

On behalf of the State, it has been submitted that the petitioner is the husband of the deceased and he is named in the F.I.R.

Considering the aforesaid facts, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner in connection with Sherghati P.S. Case No. 397 of 2013, pending in the court of the learned S.D.J.M., Sherghati, Gaya. Anyhow, if the petitioner surrenders in the court below and moves for regular bail the same shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order of the Court.
