At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioner no.2 Yogendra Yadav has already been taken into custody. Hence, his bail application has now become infructuous.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner Nos.1 and 3 to 10 are apprehending their arrest in connection with Chhatapur P.S. Case No.218 of 2014 for allegedly having committed the offences under Section 147, 148, 149, 341, 447, 323, 324, 307, 379 and 504 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that there is a history of land disputes between the parties in which both the parties are litigating since long. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that it was only on account of the said land disputes that some altercation took place between the parties.
