ORAL ORDER

3 30-11-2015 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Keoti P.S. Case No. 129/2014, registered for the offences punishable under Section 302 and other Sections of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant alleged that his son-in-law was killed by his father and brother. The petitioner is brother of the deceased. The informant is not an eye-witness of the occurrence. Save and except suspicion, there is no material to show that the petitioner killed his own brother. Ramashish Bhagat, father of the deceased has already been enlarged on regular bail vide order passed in Cr. Misc. No. 19432/2015.

Considering the facts that on the same and similar allegation the father of the deceased has already been granted regular bail, the anticipatory bail petition of the petitioner is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to surrender before the court below within four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order and pray for regular bail and his prayer shall be considered taking into consideration that similarly situated co-accused has already been granted regular bail and the court below shall dispose of the bail petition of the petitioner preferably on the same day.
