CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 21-05-2015

A compromise petition has been filed on behalf of the petitioner nos. 1, 2 and 3 as well as respondent no. 5 which is on record and part of I.A. No. 5697/2000. As per the compromise petition, the properties have been partitioned and parties have come in possession of the respective shares. This compromise petition is taken on 15.09.2000.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the contesting respondents who have both signed the compromise petition as well. It is, accordingly, submitted that the dispute having been amicably settled among the parties, the writ petition has become infructuous.

The writ petition is, accordingly, disposed of, in terms of the compromise petition aforesaid, as infructuous.
