ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 29-04-2015

This writ application is required to be dismissed at this stage with liberty to the petitioners that they will go and assert their right with regard to their future promotion and its consideration before the competent authority, who shall take a decision first.

If that order adversely affects the petitioners, they can surely approach the High Court against the said order in question. At present it is anticipated that a kind of adverse order, which is non-existent, may visit them in future. Such arguments are mere academic as of now.

Writ application is dismissed with liberty as above.
