CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 05-05-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 120B of the Indian Penal Code and 27 of the Arms
Act

It is alleged that the son of the informant went in the company of co-accused Gautam Paswan and Pankaj Paswan to take toddy. Subsequently, the informant heard the sound of gun shot and found his son in injured condition. The suspicion was raised against this petitioner as the victim has some illicit relation with the daughter of Ram Ekbal Singh leading to birth of baby girl. But when the victim went to custody, this petitioner develops some intimacy with the daughter of Ram Ekbal Singh which was not liked by the victim leading to some altercation between victim and the petitioner

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that learned Sessions Judge has committed an error of record that petitioner developed some intimacy with the daughter of ram Ekbal Singh. During investigation it transpired that since this petitioner was a party to the panchayati with regard to the daughter of Ram Ekbal Singh, hence the petitioner has been roped in the present case and admittedly informant is not an eye witness to the occurrence.

However, learned counsel for the State submits that during investigation, it transpired that petitioner played active role in commission of the offence and petitioner has been charge-sheeted.

Considering the nature of accusation, this court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner in connection with Teghra P.S. Case No. 233 of 2014, pending before the court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Begusarai.

Accordingly, the bail petition stand dismissed.
