CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESH KUMAR DATTA
ORAL ORDER

3 22-07-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners. No one appears for the State.

A supplementary affidavit has been filed on behalf of the petitioners as directed by the earlier order dated 21.05.2015 with regard to the minority of petitioner No.2 as has been claimed in the main anticipatory bail application.

In the said supplementary affidavit, it has been clearly stated that due to inadvertence, the petitioner No.2 was shown to be a minor aged about 10 years whereas he is, in fact, aged about 26 years.

The petitioners have renewed their prayer for anticipatory bail after the prayer has been rejected earlier by order dated 23.12.2013 passed in Cr. Misc. No.33599 of 2013.

The matter involves death of a young woman, for which a case under Section 304B/34 of the Indian Penal Code has been instituted. It has also come during the course of investigation that the death has been caused on account of strangulation and not by poisoning as has been alleged by the petitioners and other co-accused. No fresh material has been pointed out by learned counsel for the petitioners so as to become entitled to the grant of anticipatory bail.

In the aforesaid circumstances, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is rejected.
