Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr. Vijay Kumar, Advocate.

For the Opposite Party/s: Mr. Raj Kishore Singh (APP)

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 14-01-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the admitted position that the cheques amounting to Rs. 1,20,000/- were given by the petitioner to the informant and they have got bounced, there would be no difficulty in holding that the petitioner would be liable to pay the amount to the complainant. The only plea taken by the petitioner either before the court below or this Court that such cheques were stolen, does not inspire confidence because the cheques ultimately were passed with the signatures of the petitioner. It is not the case of the petitioner that he had put his cheques with his signatures and such cheques bearing his signatures were stolen.

That being so, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is hereby rejected.
