ORAL ORDER

5 25-06-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

Petitioner happens to be husband of the opposite party no. 2 (informant) and he is not ready to keep the informant with him rather he is ready to settle the dispute by way of one time settlement but informant does not have any interest in one time settlement and it is informed on her behalf that she is interested to lead her conjugal life with the petitioner.

In the aforesaid circumstance, this petition stands disposed of with direction to petitioner to surrender before the court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lakhisarai in connection with Lakhisarai Mahila P.S. Case No. 25 of 2013 within four weeks from today and seek regular bail and if petitioner does so, the concerned court shall release the petitioner on provisional bail for the period of four months on the day of his surrender on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the concerned court and after releasing the petitioner, the concerned court shall issue notice to the petitioner as well as opposite party no. 2 fixing date for conciliation and shall take all possible steps to patch up the dispute of the parties even by way of one time settlement. It goes without saying that if the concerned court succeeds in his attempt, the provisional bail granted to the petitioner shall be confirmed by the concerned court itself, but if the concerned court fails in his attempt due to rigid and non cooperative approach of the petitioner, the provisional bail granted to him shall not be confirmed by the concerned court and in that event petitioner shall be taken into custody by the concerned court. It is needless to say that, if, the concerned court fails in his attempt due to non cooperative and rigid approach of the opposite party no. 2, the concerned court shall confirm the provisional bail granted to the petitioner.
