CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 04-11-2015

Since the petitioner has been found short even in the re-measurement and the variation in the two measurements are a few millimeters only, which does not indicate that there is a big discrepancy in the original measurement and the re-measurement, both the results indicate that the petitioner does not have the minimum requisite height of 155 cm in her category.

If the basic eligibility is not met then the Court cannot substitute its wisdom by giving any direction in favour of the petitioner.

Writ has no merit. It is dismissed.
