CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

5 01-05-2015 Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner is apprehending arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Section 304B, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is of killing the daughter of the informant within a year of her marriage for non-fulfillment of dowry demand.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the victim died due to diarrhea and the accusation of administering poison does not get corroborated from the post-mortem. The post-mortem does not reflect any resisting injury though the report of the visceral is still not available.

Considering the nature of accusation, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

The aforesaid facts constitute good ground for consideration of prayer for regular bail.

Let the learned Court below consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioner, if the petitioner surrenders within a period of six weeks in connection with Desari P.S. Case No.96 of 2013, pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Vaishali keeping in view of the fact that the post-mortem does not reflect any external injury.

With the above observation, this application is, accordingly, disposed off.
