ORAL ORDER

2 04-03-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The petitioner is the husband of the opposite party No. 2
and seeks anticipatory bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 498(A), 379 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he is ready to keep the informant, opposite party No. 2, with full dignity and love.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the opposite party
No. 2 on the other hand has submitted that petitioner has solemnized second marriage as her family members could not satisfy his demands of dowry. He further submits that in a maintenance case, the petitioner was directed to pay a sum of rupees two thousand per month even that amount is not being paid.

In view of the above, I am not inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.

This application is accordingly rejected.

This petitioner is directed to surrender before the Court below within a period of four weeks from today. He will be at liberty to seek regular bail which shall be decided on its own merits without being prejudiced by the disposal of the present application.
