CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JYOTI SARAN

ORAL ORDER

17 27-07-2015

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that he has no instruction from the petitioners.

These batch of writ petitions have stood dismissed as against the private respondent no.5 in each of the writ petitions for non-compliance of the peremptory order dated 21.10.2013. These matters were last taken up on 17.7.2015 when they were posted under the heading 'for orders' for consideration of the office report regarding competence of the writ petitions to proceed in absence of respondent no.5 and whereafter it was directed to be posted under the heading 'For admission' and that is how the three writ petitions are listed today under the heading 'For admission'.

The three petitioners are purchasers from the private respondents and have chosen to question the proceedings arising from Ceiling Case No.3 of 1973-74/7 of 1978-79 in so far as the lands belonging to the private respondents stands purchased by these petitioners and whether it can be adjusted against the unit of the vendor.

The very fact that the writ petitions stand dismissed as against the vendor i.e. respondent no.5 in each of the three writ petitions they have been rendered incompetent and cannot proceed and are dismissed accordingly.
