CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHWANI KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

5 23-07-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners

Despite repeated calls, none appears on behalf of the State.

The petitioners seek anticipatory bail in connection with Panapur P.S. Case No.74 of 2013 registered under section 366 read with 34 of the Indian Penal.

It is contended that the daughter of the informant is a major girl aged about 19 years and she was having an affair with co-accused Rajesh Singh @ Pandit. The elder brother of Rajesh Singh was married to the cousin sister of the informant and being related co-accused Rajesh Singh was on visiting terms. The alleged victim eloped with co-accused Rajesh Singh and for no rhyme or reason the petitioners being co-villagers and a neighbour of the informant have been made accused in the present case.

It is further contended that the petitioner Kamli Kuer is a very old lady suffering from various ailments and the petitioner Mala Kumari is her unmarried daughter whereas petitioner Chitranjan Singh is her son who lives at Phagwar (Punjab) permanently in connection with his service and have nothing to do with co-accused Rajesh Singh and his family members.

From perusal of the case diary, it would appear that the witnesses have supported the fact that the daughter of the informant was having an affair with co-accused Rajesh Singh @ Pandit.

Regard being had to the facts and circumstances of the case, in the event of arrest or surrender within a period of six weeks from today, let the above named petitioners be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Sri Amit Kumar Singh, Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Saran at Chapra in connection with Panapur P.S. Case No.74 of 2013 subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
