CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DHARNIDHAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 11-02-2015

Heard.

Finding the Court not inclined to grant anticipatory bail in a case of theft of electricity, the offer of the petitioner is that he will pay up for compounding the offence.

Learned counsel for the State does not object to the offer.

Let petitioner file an appropriate petition offering to compound the offence and depositing the sum of amount which was the loss caused to the Electric Supply Division, Sakri.

Learned counsel for the Holding Company has assured the Court that if the petitioner files an appropriate petition for compounding of the offence, it shall properly and reasonably be considered.

Let the court below admit the petitioner to bail in connection with Pandaul P.S. Case No. 175 of 2013, corresponding to G.R. No. 2896 of 2013, pending before the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Madhubani on furnishing of a bond to its own satisfaction, if the petitioner files the appropriate petition for compounding of the offence and depositing the sum of amount which was the loss caused to the Electric Supply Division, Sakri

This petition stands disposed of with the above direction.
