The petitioner seeks revision of the judgment of conviction dated 27.05.2015 passed by the Additional District and Sessions Judge, II, Nawada in Cr. Appeal No. 37 of 2013/05 of 2014.

Having gone through the impugned judgment of conviction and sentence, I am unable to find any illegality in the same. However, the petitioner shall be provisionally released for a period of two months on furnishing bond of Rs. 5,000/-(Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each or any other surety to be fixed by the Court below to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Nawada in Complaint Case No. 909 of 2003 (Tr. No. 115 of 2013) subject to the conditions:

That one of the bailors will be a close relative of the petitioner, who will give an affidavit giving genealogy as to how he is related with the petitioner. The bailor will undertake to furnish information to the court about any change in the address of the petitioner,

During this period he shall pay a sum of Rs. 25,000/- awarded as a compensation. On such deposit the release shall be made absolute and the period of sentence would be modified to the extent of period already undergone by him, failing which he shall be taken into custody for serving the sentence.

Needless to say that compensation amount shall be disbursed to the victim on due verification.

With the aforesaid modification in sentence, the revision application is disposed off.
