CORAM: HONOURABLE DR. JUSTICE RAVI RANJAN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 14-07-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, the State and the Accountant General, Bihar.

Petitioner claims that he joined service as a Lower Division Assistant in the Bihar State Food and Civil Supplies

Corporation Limited (hereinafter referred to as 'the Corporation') on 9.10.1974. Thereafter, he was relieved from the Corporation to join in the office of the District Consumer Protection Forum, Darbhanga through the Collector, Darbhanga w.e.f. 1.8.1997. Thereafter, he was transferred to the District Consumer Forum, Madhubani from where he retired on 30.6.2013.

The grievance of the petitioner is that he is only getting benefit of pension and other retiral benefits for the period during which he had served in the State Government, i.e., from the same 31.7.1997 but no benefit has been given to him for the period he remained in service of the Corporation, i.e., from 9.10.1974 to 31st July, 1997. It is contended that such service should be added and counted for the purpose of all the retiral benefits including the gratuity, leave encashment etc. Petitioner submits that he is entitled for grant of full retiral benefits such as pension, gratuity, encashment of earned leave etc. taking into account the total service rendered by the petitioner from 9.10.1974 to 30.6.2013 of about 38 years 8 months. It is contended that the issue is no longer res integra as the same already stands settled vide order dated 17.5.2013 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 8539 of 2005 (Baleshwar Thakur & Ors. Vs. The State of Bihar & Ors.) which has been noticed again in a subsequent writ application bearing C.W.J.C. No. 8818 of disposed of on 15.12.2014. A Coordinate Bench of this Court has noticed and opined that denial of consideration of entire length of service is not only in violation of the earlier decision of this Court rendered in Baleshwar Thakur (supra) but is also contumacious in nature. It is further submitted that ultimately the Department of Food and Consumer Protection, Government of Bihar had issued letter to all the District Magistrates as well as the Presidents of District Consumer Forum to consider granting retiral benefit to the concerned employees in view of order dated 31.8.2000 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 12048 of 1998, however, again same thing has been repeated in case of the petitioner.

In above view of the matter, this writ application is being disposed of granting liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh representation before the Secretary, Department of Food and Consumer Protection, Government of Bihar, Patna (respondent no. 2), who would be obliged to take a decision in accordance with law also considering the various decisions of this Court rendered in writ applications mentioned above within a period of 8 weeks from the date of filing of such representation along with a copy of this order. If some payment is required to be made to the petitioner in view of the decision to be taken by the respondent no. 2 then necessary sanction order should be passed and the matter should immediately be forwarded to the Accountant General, Bihar so that the benefit could be given to the petitioner within a period of further six weeks.
