CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH

And

HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. NILU AGRAWAL

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH)

Date: 18-08-2015

Heard Mr. D.K.Sinha, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the Railways, ably assisted by Mr. Bindhyachal Singh, and Mr. M.P. Dixit, learned counsel for the contesting private respondents.

2. All these writ petitions involve a singular question, which is no more in controversy. By similar orders, similar reliefs were granted to all the contesting respondents here, when they were forced to approach the Central Administrative Tribunal, Patna Bench. The issue was what period, spent in percentage- wise, as casual and temporary status, would be counted for the purpose of pension and pensionary benefits. The Railways have contended that in casual status nothing would be granted and in temporary status fifty percent. The Tribunal, on the other hand, held that fifty percent in casual status and hundred percent in temporary status. Being aggrieved, these writ petitions.

3. Mr.Dixit, learned counsel appearing for the contesting respondents brings to the notice of this Court that at least in thirty earlier cases, the Tribunal had held so. The Railways being aggrieved had filed at least 25 writ petitions earlier on the same identical issue. They were all dismissed. Some of them even went to Supreme Court and Special Leave to Appeal(S.L.Ps.) were dismissed. Again, the Tribunal being bound by its earlier judgment, repeated the same, and we are being bound by the earlier judgment by the Division Bench, have to repeat the same, and dismiss all these writ petitions.

4. We wonder why the Railways is forcing each employee to individually approach Tribunal. It is well-settled that once a position in law upon a fact is decided by the competent authority or the Tribunal, that would apply automatically to all similarly situated persons. They need not move the Tribunal or authority afresh. It appears that as no one in the Railways has to pay any cost for litigating, this wrong practice continues. It should be deprecated. It not only wastes time of the litigants, but the time of the Tribunal and the High Court in repeating the same thing again and again, with no benefits to any one in real terms.

5. The issue having been settled repeatedly, all these writ petitions are dismissed.
