For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Ram Sumiran Rai(App)

2 24-08-2015 Petitioner being husband of the complainant is apprehending his arrest in a complaint case wherein processes were directed to be issued after cognizance being taken for the offences punishable under Section 498A of the I.P.C. and Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner admits his marriage with the complainant and is ready to keep the complainant as wife with full dignity and honour. A statement to that effect has been made in para 17 of the petition which reads as follows:-

“That it is most humbly submitted that the petitioner in spite of all is still ready to keep the complainant with all dignity and prestige and it is the complainant who does not want to stay with the petitioner and compromise the matter”

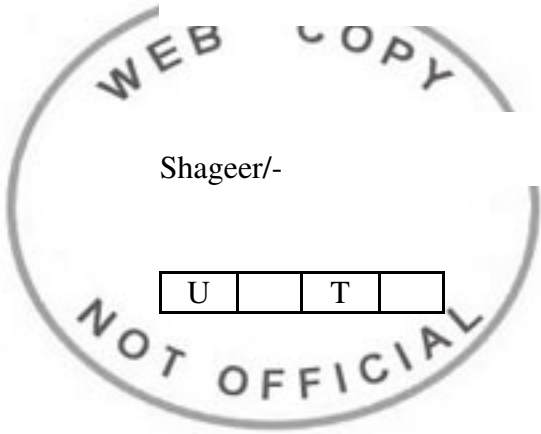

Learned counsel for the complainant, on instruction is ready to accept the offer of the petitioner but is apprehensive due to the past conduct of the petitioner.

Both sides agree to appear before learned Court below on 1st of October, 2015, when the petitioner will take the complainant to her matrimonial house to keep her as wife with full dignity and honour.

Considering the aforesaid stand of the parties, let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of 12 weeks from today, be released on provisional anticipatory bail for one year on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Khagaria in connection with Complaint Case No. 1043(C) of 2013.

The provisional anticipatory bail of the petitioner will be confirmed by the learned Court below in three eventualities (i) On substantial restoration of the matrimonial harmony within a period of one year (ii) If the complainant fails to appear before learned Court below (iii) If the complainant is reluctant to reconcile the issue.
