CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 27-02-2015 Heard the learned counsels for the petitioner, informant and learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the informant is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 323, 406, 498(A) and 504 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is of torture for non-fulfillment of dowry demand.

On instruction, it is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is ready to keep the informant as wife with full dignity and honour, a statement to that effect has been made in paragraph no. 12 of the petition which reads as follows:-

"12. That the petitioner always wants to live and keep the informant in his house according to her full respect and dignity."

The petitioner took similar stand before the learned court below.

Both sides agree to appear before the learned court below on 23.03.2015 when the petitioner will take back the informant to keep her as wife with full dignity and honour.

Considering the present stand of the petitioner, let the petitioner, above named, be released on provisional anticipatory bail for one year in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of twelve weeks from today in connection with Barouli P.S. Case No. 52 of 2014 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M., Gopalganj, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The provisional bail of the petitioner will be confirmed by the learned court below in three eventualities i.e., (i) if the matrimonial harmony is substantially restored within one year (ii) or the informant fails to appear before the learned court below (iii) or she gets reluctant to reconcile the issue.
